

GOVERNMENT AWAITS OUTCOME OF APPEAL

Not Try Mrs. Chadwick Again
Unless She Escapes Punishment Under Recent Conviction.

(By Associated Press.)
CLEVELAND, O., April 15.—Mrs. Chadwick, when arraigned in the United States District Court yesterday, pleaded not guilty to the new indictment recently returned against her by the grand jury, charging her with aiding and abetting Charles A. B. Spear, of this Ohio town, in making false entries in the bank's books and in making untrue statements to the controller of the currency. Spear was also arraigned to-day and pleaded not guilty to the joint indictment.
The court increased Mrs. Chadwick's bail from $5,000 to $75,000. Of the $75,000 added, $5,000 was to cover the new indictment while $1,000 was named on each of the two of the old indictments, upon which no bail had been specifically fixed heretofore.
In reply to the question of Attorney Wing, counsel for Mrs. Chadwick, in court to-day, District Attorney Sullivan stated that Mrs. Chadwick would not be tried on any of the indictments standing against her during the present term. This is taken to mean that the government will not try Mrs. Chadwick again unless she escaped punishment on the conspiracy charge, upon which she was recently tried.

RAPIDAN RIPPLES.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RAPIDAN, VA., April 15.—Mr. C. R. Crawley, of Chicago, Ill., is visiting his home at the place.
Rev. W. R. Flanagan, of Orange, is a guest of Mr. J. Wallace Jacobs.
Mrs. D. P. Welch has returned from a visit to friends in Charlottesville.
Mr. W. F. Clendenen and wife, Fredericksburg, are guests of relatives and friends at Locust Dale.
Miss Dow, of Jacobs and brother, Mr. Pat Jacobs, visited friends at Mine Run Sunday.
Miss Liza Shepherd, of Prince, W. Va., is a guest of her friend, Miss Sue Twyman, of Locust Dale.
Mrs. O. P. Loving and Miss Bessie Wyatt visited friends in Washington, D. C., on Tuesday and Wednesday.
Miss Helen Jones is ill at the home of Mr. J. Wambert, near Grange.
Mrs. W. S. Gordon, of Miller School, who is visiting relatives at Locust Dale, is very ill, we are sorry to note.
Mr. John W. Peyton celebrated his sixty-sixth birthday Sunday, and all present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. With their cordial host many happy returns of the day. Those present were Mrs. Virginia Gwynne, Mr. George L. Peyton, of this place; Mrs. Newman Peyton and family, Mr. Bradley Peyton and family, of Charlottesville; Miss Lucy Luck, Mrs. Philip Peyton; and Mr. Frank Linnard, of Alexandria.

SALEM SOCIAL.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALEM, VA., April 15.—The Literary Club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Roma Stearns on High Street. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, there was a large crowd present, and the meeting was a very enjoyable one. Dr. F. V. N. Painter presided and opened the meeting with a dissertation on King Lear. Other papers were read by Mrs. Margie Logan, Miss Hannah Stearns, Dr. R. Minor Wiley and Mr. Roma Stearns. At the next meeting, to be held at Mr. J. P. Allen's, there will be an elaborate musical program, which will be rendered by the best talent of the town.
Dr. Haas's class in music gave a most successful recital Saturday afternoon. The first selection of the programme was a vocal solo from "Il Trovatore," by Miss Clara Peterson, followed by several selections from Faust, by Dr. Haas, performed in his usual brilliant style. The Lovelace, by Miss Eugenia Griffin, and "Credo" a duet by Miss Bessie Stearns, were played with taste and expression. The programme was closed with "Hail's Spectre Bride," by Miss Carrie Brown.
Mr. Orren Stearns, who has been absent for several months on business, returned home Wednesday.
Miss Emma Ayres, who has been visiting in South Carolina, is at home again.
Miss Edna Willis left Tuesday for Franklin county, where she will visit friends.
Mr. Ben Finley, who has been in business in West Virginia, for the past year, is visiting his parents on Main Street.
The new hall of the Roanoke College returned Thursday after an extended trip through Southwest Virginia and Tennessee.

SWEET AFTON.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AFTON, VA., April 15.—This beautiful resort is putting on her gorgeous summer dress again, and the mountains are lovely in their wealth of fruit and flowers and early wild flowers. The Afton House and other popular boarding places near Afton are being put in order for the reception of guests.
A new cottage, recently purchased by Miss Nana Fulton, of New York, has been beautifully renovated, and will be one of the most desirable private boarding places in the Blue Ridge.
Mr. Marcan, the well known artist, of New York, and his wife were guests at Afton yesterday last week.
Mrs. John J. McHenry and son, of Kentucky, are at the Afton House.
Mr. G. J. Hunt and Mr. Fred W. Scott, of Richmond, were visitors at the "Royal Orchard" this week.
Miss Martha Harris, after a six months' stay at Afton, has returned to her home at Gladstone.
Misses Ruha and Georgia Goodloe are visitors in Charlottesville.
Mrs. J. Ezekiel Hall is the guest of her brother, Mr. W. H. Lumsden, in Ghent, Norfolk.
Mr. W. Bailey Saunders, of Chant, Mr. Bruce Burks, of West Virginia, and Mr. Morrow, of Baltimore, were visitors at Afton this week.
Mrs. Helen Hayes Burns and daughter Dorothy, of Washington, are at "Chestnut Ridge" for the summer.
The revival services at the Afton chapel closed this week after a very successful meeting, conducted by Revs. Carson and Wiley, of Albemarle county.
The Bible Institute has been resumed at the chapel by Miss Grace Davis, of Staunton.

The Tyler Store, First and Broad.

Boys' Spring Suits Underpriced!

Mothers will show judgment by coming here and saving a dollar on the boys' Easter Suit.

SPECIAL. Boys' $2.00 Wool Cheviot Suits, in three different patterns, ages 6 to 16, $1.48
SPECIAL. Boys' $3.00 All Wool Cheviot Suits, in blue, black and mixtures, ages 6 to 16, $2.48

CHILDREN'S WASH SUITS.

Our superb selection of Children's Wash Suits is ready for inspection. They are composed of every known style, color and fabric; prices, 50c to $3.00.

Middy Suits, with cap to match, $3.00 each.
Rough Rider and Japanese Play Suits, $1.00 each.

STRAW AND DUCK SAILOR HATS, DUCK AND CLOTH TAMP-ON-HATERS, CAPS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

FAST GOERS FOR MONDAY.

Children's 50c & 75c Sailor Hats 23c Children's $1. & $1.25 Sailor Hats 48c

MIT FREE WITH BOYS' SUITS FROM $2.50 UP.

JULIAN W. TYLER, FIRST AND BROAD STS.

MRS. ARTHUR CANNON HUMPHREYS.

St. James Church, of Warrenton, Va., on April 12th, was the scene of a brilliant wedding, when Miss Jeanne Carter was married to Mr. Arthur Cameron Humphreys. The Rev. Mr. Lawrence, of Maryland, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Laird, rector of the church, officiated.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme of yellow and white, with green background, being effectively carried out. Asparagus and trailing vines draped the arches and chancel rail; while groups of palms, potted plants and masses of jonquils and other spring flowers were artistically arranged.

An unusually attractive musical program was rendered by Mrs. John R. Hicks, at the organ, and Miss Vernon, playing the "cello."

Promptly at noon, the appointed hour, to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, the bride entered the church, and was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her away. She was met at the chancel steps by the groom and his best man, Mr. Thomas Shelton, of Norfolk, Va.

Preceding the bride were, first, the ushers, Messrs. John Rogers and Hugh M. Korr, of Norfolk; J. Green Carter, a brother of the bride, and Dr. Southron Key, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. Reginald W. Walker, also of Washington, and Dr. Thomas W. Munroe, of Richmond, Va. Then the bridesmaids, Miss Janet Hamilton and Miss Landon Hicks, of Warrenton; Miss Martha O'Riley, of Fauquier, and Miss Adele Gibson, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Cornelia M. Nelson, of New York city; and Miss Rebecca Walker, of Richmond, Va. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Susan Green Carter, a sister of the bride.

The bridesmaids were becomingly attired in gowns of white silk mull, trimmed with lace and white lace, coral colored silk girdles and big white maline hats, trimmed with coral color, completed the attractive costume. The conventional bouquets were replaced by dainty white tulle muffs, trimmed with sprays of yellow roses.

The maid of honor was gowned in a beautiful coral colored crepe de chine, made over tulle and chiffon, with big tulle hat to match. She also carried a tulle muff.

The bride was the youngest daughter of Mr. Cassius Carter, of Fauquier, and since her debut a few years ago has been extremely popular. She is well known in Washington, Richmond and Norfolk society.

Mr. Humphreys is the son of Major Humphreys, of Norfolk, and is prominent in the business and social world in that city.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents, all testifying to her popularity and the esteem in which she is held.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys left Warrenton at 2 o'clock by special train for Washington. After a few weeks spent in visiting the Northern cities, they will sail for Europe, to be gone several months, and upon their return will make their future home in Norfolk.

Among the guests attending the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elder, of Washington; Mrs. William Hogg, Miss Mary R. Ball, Mrs. William Hill, Mr. John Hill Carter and Mr. Robert Lee, also of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walker, of Richmond; Miss Annie Carter, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, Miss Charrington, Mr. Edward B. Charrington, Mr. and Mrs. F. Scott Carter, Dr. R. L. Hicks, Miss Bessie Hicks, Miss Sallie Marshall, Mrs. Payne, Miss Nannie Payne, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Maddux, Dr. C. Shirley Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hamilton, the Misses Hamilton, Mrs. Morton Douglas, Mr. Fairfax Gaines, Mr. John Gaines, Mr. John Stone, Colonel and Mrs. Lon Smith, all of Warrenton; Mr. G. L. Williams, Miss Amelia Williams, Miss Frances O'Riley, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Nourse, Mrs. Walter H. Nelson, Mrs. R. C. Daniel, Miss Daniel, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Turnbull, Mr. Willie Coates, Mr. Harry Edmonds and George Mervin Kent Nelson, Mrs. O'Riley, of Fauquier.

SOCIETY.

(Continued from Sixth Page.)

tween Norfolk and Petersburg.
Mr. Ernest Schaaf, the brother of the bride, and Mr. Jackson Craddock, brother of the groom, accompanied the couple to Washington.
Captain and Mrs. Craddock are now visiting relatives in Norfolk and vicinity. On their return they will reside in Petersburg.

For Summer Rest.

A rummage sale for the benefit of Summer Rest will be held at No. 428 North Sixth Street, April 23d, and continued for ten days. Contributions are solicited from all friends of this beautiful work which is owned, and for the most part sustained by women engaged in daily toil for self-support. Cast-off garments, especially men's and children's clothes, shoes and old house furnishings, should be sent to No. 550 East Grace Street or will be sent for if contributors will kindly notify Mrs. Harke-dale at that number.

June Third Wedding Date.

Town and Country of April 15th, publishes a pretty picture of Miss Mary Russell, of Winchester, Va., whose marriage to Mr. Gardner Willard Brown, the son of Mr. Vernon H. Brown, and a member of the New York Stock Exchange, is set for June 3d. Mr. Brown also belongs to the Union, the Strollers Rockaway Hunt and Richmond County Hunt Clubs.
Miss Russell is the daughter of Mr. James B. Russell, president of the Winchester Union Bank, and is considered one of the most beautiful women in the Old Dominion.

Announcement Cards.

The Radford Advance says:
At a meeting of the A. I. Club, which was held at Dr. Wilson's on Tuesday afternoon, Miss Gertrude Venable announced her engagement to Mr. Lewis Ingles, and the wedding day for Wednesday, April 19th.
The ceremony will be of a very recent, heretofore in the bride's family, the wedding will be quiet. It will be solemnized at 2:30 in the evening, at the Presbyterian Church.

The announcement cards, which were handed the guests immediately upon arrival, were dainty and appropriate. They were two united hearts, hand-painted, and showing tiny portraits of the fiancés, with the date, "April 19th," below.

The happy occasion was the only subject discussed by the club. A letter of congratulation from Mrs. Clyde Miller, an absent member, was read. Delicious ices and cakes were served, and the meeting adjourned.

Miss Venable is a niece of the late Colonel George W. Miles, of Radford.

House Party in Bijou.

St. Agnes Guild of Monumental Episcopal Church will give an Easter week house party at Bijou hall, at the corner of Broad and Eighth Streets.
The hall will be handsomely decorated and six booths will be presided over by members of the Guild and decorated by the chairman of the day. These booths will represent Monday, washing day; Tuesday, ironing day; Wednesday, darning day; Thursday, reception day; Friday, cleaning day; and Saturday, baking day. They will be filled with the articles needed for one and all of these days.

In addition to the week-day booths, a country store will aim to supply general and special desires. The ice cream of all classes and conditions of people, and candy stands will probably be the most popular places in the hall.

A feature of the house party will be a military drill each evening, for which the forty-eight young ladies, who are to participate in it will be drilled by Captain George N. Skipwith.

Officers of the Guild are Miss Emma Moody, acting president; Miss Elira Ellington, recording secretary; Miss Lella Krouse, corresponding secretary, and Miss Effie Pettifolias, treasurer.

Livesay—Matthews.

The wedding of Miss Della May Matthews, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Matthews, to Mr. Adolphus L. Livesay, took place in the Baptist Church, at Dendron, Va., Wednesday evening, April 12th, at 8 o'clock, the Rev. J. W. Guy officiating.

The bride was attended by Miss Eva Matthews, Miss Louise Godde, of Richmond, and Miss Bertha Holdsworth. Mr. Noble Jordan was best man, other members of the bridal party including Messrs. Judson Matthews, of Richmond, and Judson James, of Dendron.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Burton Gay, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting her mother, Mrs. George W. Mayo, at No. 203 West Grace Street. Mrs. Gay will be in Richmond for the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Trowbridge Hollister, of New York, are the guests of Mr. John P. Branch. Mr. Hollister is the senior member of the firm, Macy and Company.

Miss Emmie Wherry, who has been visiting friends in Danville, has returned home.

Mr. Fred Pleasant is a guest at the Mecklenburg Hotel, Chase City.

Miss Margaret Crawford left Saturday for Halifax county, to be the guest of Mrs. J. W. Easley through Easter week.

Mrs. B. B. Van Buren and Miss Louella Williams are visiting Mr. R. Archer Williams and Mr. Arthur Van Buren, of Wilmington, N. C.

St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will meet in the home of Miss Stella Williams, No. 2702 East Grace Street, Monday, April 17th, at 4:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. T. Rogerson left

FASHION HINTS.

TUCKED BLOUSE COAT.

No. 10—Overcoat and check material in the new colorings was used to construct this stylish coat.

The coat is fitted by underarm and shoulder seams. The back and front portions are laid in stitched pleats, which extend from the shoulder to the waist line, where the extra fullness is disposed of in gathers and a shaped belt attached.

The front of coat opens over a vest of white. This vest when made of washable material may be made independent of the coat and attached with tiny hooks and eyes or buttoned on.

The collar is of the notched tailor variety and may be made of silk or contrasting fabric.

The sleeves of the leg-of-mutton type, quite full at the top and gathered into the armholes, the lower portion of sleeve is fitted to a turn-over cuff by the tuck pleats.

A pointed peplum having an inverted box pleat at the back is attached to the belt, which finishes the lower edges of the body portion, if preferred the peplum may be omitted.

The coat pattern No. 3140 is cut in sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 inches, but measure and require 2 1/2 yards of material 42 inches wide, with 2-4 yards of contrasting material for the medium size.

This pattern can be gotten from The Cohen Co. for 10c.

Reinach 427 East Broad St.

Just 6 More Shopping Days--and Then Easter

A gentle reminder that here, where stocks are largest, styles best, you can make a selection of your Easter Hat with no difficulty whatever.

We Have Been Preparing for this occasion. Hundreds of pretty hats—saving you time and worry—what to wear.

You'll Find

Your Easter Hat Here

and you'll say there's no mistake. There are no duplicates, and just enough uniformity to make the wearer feel that her hat has been made especially for her. In point of elegance and exclusiveness unquestionably this selection leads. Prices to suit any modest purse.

REINACH, 427 East Broad St.

yesterday for a visit to New Orleans and Florida.

Miss Evelyn Gray Bell, of Palmyra, Va., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clayton Miller, at No. 414 East Grace Street. She will extend her visit into the Easter season.

Mrs. N. A. Linney, of Gordonsville, Va., is visiting relatives in Richmond.

Miss Rose Allen is the guest of friends in Ashland.

Mrs. L. A. Patrick, of Danville, called to Richmond by the illness of her son, Mr. Lawrence Patrick, of New York, has returned home.

Miss Marjorie Knowles is completing her education as a vocalist in New York, and may go abroad later on.

Mr. L. C. Stratton, of Gordonsville, has accepted a position in Richmond with the Southern Bell Telephone Company.

Mrs. N. Peyton McKnight, of Washington, has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Cornelia Russell, to Mr. George Henry Calvert, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benedict Calvert, of Hyattsville, Maryland, and a direct descendant of Lord Baltimore. The ceremony will take place Wednesday, April 26th, at 4 P. M., in St. John's Church. Miss McKnight is connected with several prominent Virginia families.

Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Bradley are guests of their son, Marc, who is attending lectures at Richmond College this year.

Friends of the Rev. H. St. George Tucker, eldest son of the Rev. Dr. B. T. Tucker, in Norfolk, Va., will be glad to hear of his early return from Yokohama, Japan, where he has been engaged in mission work for about six years.

Mrs. B. F. Jennings, of Elizabeth City, N. C., has sent out cards for the marriage of her daughter, Sallie, to Mr. Spurgeon Graves Lee, of Portsmouth, Va., the ceremony to take place April 23th, at 12:30 o'clock in "The Elms," the home of the bride's mother, near Elizabeth City, N. C.

The Louisa Dramatic Company gave a play last week, entitled "Among the Breakers," at Louisa, Va., and realized quite a nice sum for the benefit of the Home for Needy Confederate Women.

Miss Bertha Lehman, of No. 1819 Rutaw Place, Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Hexter, of No. 2323 West Grace Street, Richmond.

Miss Jana Power, of Baltimore, and Miss Valeria Jewell Sanford, of Hartford, Conn., are visiting Miss Hester Cabell Tabb, of No. 305 West Franklin Street.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hickey, of Danville, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hickey, No. 321 South Third Street.

The approaching marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Gerring to Mr. John Amrhein is announced, the wedding to take place Wednesday, April 26th, at St. Mary's German Catholic Church, at 11 o'clock.

No cards.

Mr. B. M. Harris and bride (see Green) have returned from their wedding tour, and are residing at No. 306 West Marshall Street.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles V. Carrington have gone to Atlantic City, where the spring season is at its height.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton H. Grundy and Mrs. T. M. Moulton have returned from a pleasant visit to New York, where they said good-bye to Mr. George W. Stevens and party, sailing for Europe on April 15th.

Mrs. John Franklin Wilkins, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Harris, Jr.

Mr. James B. Godsey, of No. 305 1-2 North Cary Street, who has been quite sick at Virginia Hospital, is considerably improved.

Miss Melita Wilson, who has been under treatment of Dr. Stuart McGuire, at St. Luke's Hospital, has sufficiently improved to return to her home at Radford, Va.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Ada Estelle Parr, adopted daughter of Mrs. M. A. Parr, to Mr. Dana Cameron Smith, of Richmond. The marriage will take place at Bethel Baptist Church, Caroline county, April 25th. The couple will take Southern tour, going as far South as Jacksonville, Fla. Upon their return they will reside in Richmond.

Miss Nettie Phillips is visiting her cousins, the Misses Norton, in Newport News.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt are at Hot Springs, Va., where the representation of exclusive society is unusually large, where the fine weather continues and tea tables dot the club-house lawn during afternoon concert hours.

Dr. Robert H. Fife represented Wesleyan University at the installation ceremonial of the University of Virginia on April 18th. Dr. Fife was well and very happy to be with his old college mates again, and his friends were very glad to see him.

Dr. Robert H. Fife represented Wesleyan University at the installation ceremonial of the University of Virginia on April 18th. Dr. Fife was well and very happy to be with his old college mates again, and his friends were very glad to see him.

An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

GROUP.
An attack of croup can be ward off by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly at the first indication of the approach of the disease. For sale by all druggists.

THE XXTH CENTURY SEWING MACHINE

Q The highest type of FAMILY SEWING MACHINE—the embodiment of SIMPLICITY and UTILITY—the ACME of CONVENIENCE.

In Purchasing Sewing-Machines, It is Economy to Get the Best.

A cheaply made sewing-machine is dear at any price, because faulty in action; liable to break and difficult to operate.

That it is truest economy to buy a Singer can be perfectly demonstrated by inquiry at any Singer Store.

SINGER SEWING MACHINE CO.

19 West Broad Street, Richmond, Va.
1215 Hull Street, Winchester, Va.
136 North Syamere Street, Petersburg, Va.